Award winners will be announced at the Hepatitis Victoria Annual General Meeting on Tuesday 16 October.

AWARDS OVERVIEW

Mark Farmer Memorial Award - honouring former Hepatitis Victoria Board Member Mark Farmer, is awarded to an individual with lived experience of viral hepatitis who has:

- shared their knowledge and experience to help others in the community living with hepatitis
- increased community knowledge and understanding of viral hepatitis
- demonstrated positive use of self-management principles in their daily lives.

Organisational Collaboration Award - recognises an organisation from the fields of health services, community service organisations and/or research that:

- has made a significant contribution to reducing the prevalence of hepatitis in Victoria and/or to maximising the well-being of those living with viral hepatitis
- has organisational arrangements that allow it to effectively respond to hepatitis
- collaboratively works with Hepatitis Victoria and other organisations across the viral hepatitis sector.

Individual Contribution Award - is made to an individual who may or may not have lived experience of viral hepatitis, who has:

- made a significant contribution to reducing the prevalence of hepatitis in Victoria and/or to maximising the well-being of those living with hepatitis
- inspired others to similarly contribute to the response to hepatitis in the community
- collaboratively worked with Hepatitis Victoria and other organisations across the viral hepatitis sector.
