

LIVERability Festival

Take action now for a world with
#Nohep #HEPFreeVic

2018 CALENDAR OF EVENTS

DATE	EVENT NAME	EVENT FOCUS	LOCATION/HOST
July-TBC	Sunshine Street Market	Raising awareness of hepatitis B testing and vaccination & new treatments for hepatitis C	Sunshine Community Market, Hampshire Road
10 July	Community Awareness and Education Workshop	Community education and mobilization	Multicultural Hub, Melbourne
17 July	Spotlight on hepatitis B	Ways to improve treatment, management and care for people living with chronic hepatitis B	Doherty Institute
	Chinese Community Awareness and Education Workshop	Community education and mobilization	Library at the Dock, Docklands
19 July	Leadership on Liver Health Forum (HEPReady Workshop)	Liver health, raising community awareness	Civic Centre Level 2, City Council of Dandenong
27 July	Street Shot Exhibition launch and gallery opening (27 July-10 August)	Engaging with young people on risks of viral hepatitis through a creative photography and video exhibition	The Centre Space, MetroWest, Victoria University, Footscray
28 July	World Hepatitis Day App Launch	Launch of the LiverWELL app	Online
	Community Awareness and Education Workshop	Community Education, resource distribution	Kathleen Syme Library and Community Centre (Activity Room), Carlton
29 July	Springvale Snow Festival	Engagement with culturally diverse communities, information and resources on hepatitis B & C	Buckingham Avenue Springvale
30 July	Burnet World Hepatitis Day Symposium	Preventing disease, Preventing deaths	Burnet institute
August-TBC	Doherty Symposium	Overview of local and international research projects contributing to elimination targets	The Doherty Institute
July-August	LIVERability small grants	A range of events hosted by recipients of the small grants program	Various community organizations
	Love Your Liver Regional Campaign	Raising awareness in the community about hepatitis	Shepparton (mixed media)